

Campus Crates Storage Crew

Campus Crates is a storage and moving company founded by Baylor University students for students in 2015. Today, Campus Crates operates at five schools and assists over 1000 students every year with their moving, storage, and shipping needs. We are also partnered with several leading Texas Universities. Our most popular service is our summer storage. This service is an all-inclusive service that includes free boxes, free pickup, climate-controlled storage, insurance, and free delivery. Campus Crates offers this service to students at Baylor University, SMU, St. Edward's, TCU and University of Texas at Austin.

Our goal at Campus Crates (CC) is to take the hassle out of move-out and allow our customers to focus on what really matters. To achieve this goal, Campus Crates prides itself in offering a high-quality service at an affordable price.

Contractor Details:

At Campus Crates, our moving contractor team is the lifeblood of our operations. As a mover, you will have the opportunity to earn $12/hour plus tips (avg. wages ~17-20+ per hour) during your respective university's move-out in May, move-in in August, and through sporadic moving work during the summer (if interested). Tips are highly generous and may be received via cash or through contracts that customers complete. All contract work is subject to your availability and interest.

Contractor Qualifications:
